

To Whom it May Concern

February 2012

"Based on personal experience, I would recommend Van Mar Constructors Inc to any friend or family. I have been pleased with every aspect of the building experience.

First of all, the building of a Van Mar Constructors was efficient in every way. No time was wasted in the construction. Yet no quality was compromised in the process.

Second, the house I have is beautiful inside and out. Everybody who has come to visit, loved the built and the colours chosen.

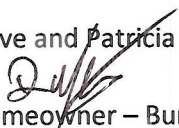

Third, the price is second to none. No one else can build a house for the price Van Mar offers. With all the fabulous upgrades I'm happy we bought this house.

Finally, Karen Poliziani and Mike are the best! Whenever we called, we were treated with respect and urgency. They listened to every idea, suggestion, and concern.

Again, I would recommend a Van Mar Construction to anyone considering building a house. It truly has been a wonderful experience!"
